His hands grope about among the objects on the table as if he were sleepwalking; he is oblivious of his original purpose, yet he is unconsciously guided by it. Despite the prominent role that competition over natural resources has played in some of Africa's most intractable conflicts, little research has been devoted to what the economic dimensions of armed conflict mean for peace operations and efforts to reconstruct war-torn states. There are times when you can beckon, There are times when you must. I really enjoyed the first two Bujold books I read because they brought an older and more wisened character to the forefront of the story which is something different to what I predominantly see in fantasy.
